ORIENTATION

Orientation 1980 was a meticulously planned event in which thirty-nine volunteer student leaders coordinated with administrators and faculty greeted 300 new students to the Abbey. This was no small task; Orientation '80 greeted the largest Freshman class that the Abbey has ever seen. This endeavor was surely a credit to the admissions staff, but the true feat which was achieved was by the residence life staff. These new students were not only faced with the typical plight of all incoming Freshmen classes preceding them, but because of limited on campus housing some rooms were tripled. Also, Belmont Abbey being once an all male school saw the male to female ratio reach one to one proportions for the first time in the history of the college.

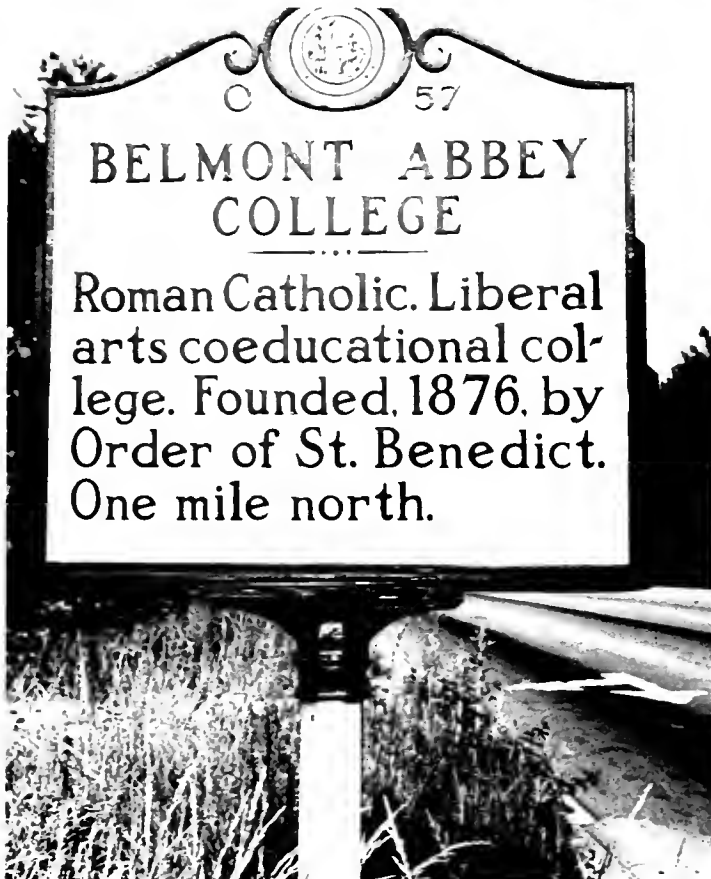

The whole orientation program did not consist of just eight days but was the culmination of months of planning. Three days prior to the Freshmen arrival last minute preparations were being made by the entire orientation staff.

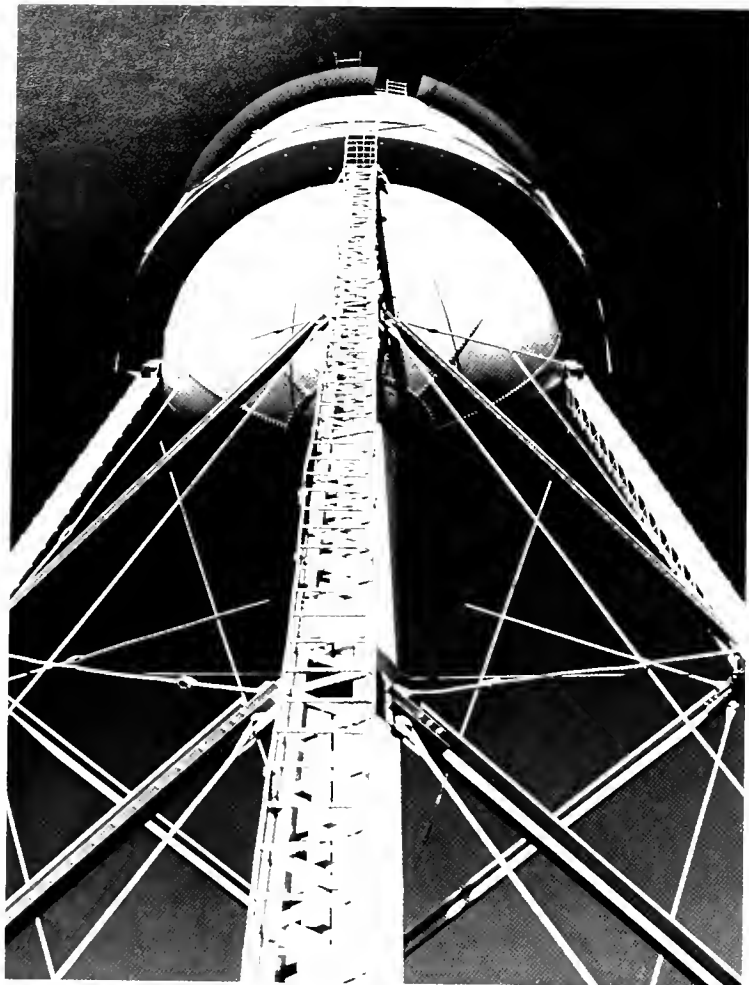

The scheduled arrival of Freshmen on August 20 between noon and five ran relatively smoothly with Abbot Walter conducting a slide presentation for the early arrivals and their families. As students said their good-byes and began settling in, the assimilation process into the Abbey community turned into full swing.

Thursday, the second day of orientation was an important one, which began with a battery of tests to assist each advisor in the placement of their advisees. That afternoon the orientation program proceeded to the gym for a program designed as a vehicle by which individuals could discern value clarifications and communicate them to their peers.

Friday began the formal academic orientation with the assembly of faculty, administrators, and students in the Abbey Cathedral. The Freshmen were then divided into groups of approximately twenty, and accompanied by one professor and one upperclassman in order to give the Freshmen an idea of what academe at the Abbey is like from contrasting perspectives. After lunch the Freshmen then went to their respective advisors to become acquainted and determine from the placement tests what classes each student would need in preparation for registration the next day. Bingo in the "Haid" was the highlight of the evening activities being sponsored by the College Union.

Freshmen registration brought about the finale of the academic orientation and once the students had signed up for their classes and purchased their books the afternoon was left free. A bus tour of Charlotte stopping at South Park Mall was organized to show students the proximity of Charlotte.

Sunday came as a long awaited solace for both the Freshmen and orientation staff with Mass and an afternoon excursion to Carowinds Amusement Park.

On Monday during the final arrival of Upperclassmen and subsequent registration, the Freshmen were whisked away for a picnic at Camp Steer, which featured a sun filled afternoon of swimming, canoeing, frisbee throwing, and friend making. The next day was to hold the long awaited reason for the months of planning and anticipation, the beginning of classes.

The Very Reverend Fr. Neil W. Tobin has served as President of Belmont Abbey College since June 1, 1978. As of May 31, 1981, Fr. Tobin will resume his pastoral life in his home diocese of Dubuque, Iowa.

During his presidency at B.A.C., Fr. Tobin has helped to upgrade many facets of the college community; with such changes as a face lift to St. Leo's and the new theater in the "Haid". Furthermore, enrollment has increased steadily in the past two years adding to the solvency of the college. The renovation of second floor of the administration building was begun during Father Tobin's administration in order to aid in making the learning atmosphere more comfortable for both students and faculty. All of these facts can be concluded as the product of a successful administration.

When Fr. Tobin leaves the college community his departure will be felt by all. The community wishes him well and the best of luck in his new responsibilities.

Fr. Neil W. Tobin

Fr. John P. Bradley

Reverend John Bradley is the Provost of Belmont Abbey College, Belmont, North Carolina. He was appointed to that position in June 1978 after serving as President of the school for eight years.

Fr. Bradley was born in Glasgow, Scotland in 1919 and ordained a priest in 1944. Two years later he was awarded a seven-year scholarship. He spent the first four years of the scholarship at Oxford University and the fifth at Glasgow University.

Fr. Bradley used the funds from the last two years of the scholarship to come to America where he was assigned to be an assistant to the late Archbishop Fullon Sheen.

At Sheen's request, Fr. Bradley went to teach philosophy at Belmont for one year. But he agreed to affiliate permanently with the school and became the acting head of their Department of Philosophy.

After three years at Belmont, Fr. Bradley went to Montreal, Canada to supervise the editing of a French edition of the Bible. The project was a joint operation with Grolier Publishing Co., New York and Good Will Publishers; and from then on he has been editor-in-chief of Good Will Publishers.

From the time of his leaving Belmont in 1955 until his return in 1970, he wrote and edited some twenty books, the latest being The International Dictionary of Thoughts and the ten-volume Catholic Layman's Library.

Fr. Bradley has degrees in philosophy and theology as part of his seminary background. In addition, he received a B.A. and M.A. from Oxford University and a Diploma of Education from Glasgow University.

The Reverend John P. Bradley is now Chairman of the Board of Good Will Publishing Company.

The Abbey community wants to thank the Reverend John Bradley for his years of dedicated service and wish him much success in his new leadership responsibilities.

Belmont Abbey College Union

The Belmont Abbey-Sacred Heart College Union, more affectionately known as "BASH", was founded in 1968. The two schools were small, and the need for mutual socializing was apparent. As the years progressed, student populations grew, and the individual campus needs changed with the times. Early in September 1980, internal tensions began to rise within the partnership. Divorce soon became the only recourse.

On October 1, 1980, the Belmont Abbey College Union ("BACU," baa koo) was born. And it was a magnificent birth. Its president, Jim Briseese, was faced with quite a challenge — he had to build a strong campus organization, keeping the activities moving smoothly, being responsible for his administrative duties, answering the community's questions, while remaining a "nice" guy. Most people would say he did it all rather well.

The fall semester brought folks like Janet Koenigsamen, Laura Perrucci, Rae Millner, Judy Probst, and Jack Martin, under the direction of Sally Baynton, who all were instrumental in programming a series of events which filled the weeks with a blanket concert by PLUM HOLLOW, a Casino Night, a jazz concert with PROJECTIONS, author-lecturer Jeremy Rifkin, rollerskating, bowling and a series of ten first-run movies . . . to name a few. Fall weekend's theme "Oktoberfest," presented the autumn months with a German flavor, a "Saurkraut" band . . . Grand Father Mountain Cloggers, and the semiformal. Karen Van Sickle worked long and hard, slept in on Sunday after the weekend, and then started plans for the spring semester's big weekends on Monday. The Christmas Dance presented a fine finale of the fall semester with a visit from Santa (alias Gene Nutter) and his elves, and a hope for a traditional tree planting by the union.

IN VISIT
SO...
A 6:30

As first semester has its dramatic changes, second semester would follow suit. Tim Lawson and Joe Albertson were elected to the governing board for the Co-Curricular and Recreation Committees. In January, BACU was fortunate to coordinate Fred Storaska's presentation on HOW TO SAY NO TO A RAPIST AND SURVIVE, a blanket concert, Michael Brown's lecture on toxic waste, co-sponsored the production of MASH, Winter Weekend . . . a traditional Spring Weekend, blanket concerts, bingo, we could go on . . . and it did . . . Come the end of February, elections were held. After tense campaigning between four friends, Janet Koenigsamen would be the next President, and Karen Van Sickle the Vice President. A potentially tragic year ended in on a good note, and with the energy to begin the plans for 1981-82.

SPIRE

I would like to state one irrefutable fact and that is a successful yearbook is the reflection of the campus community. I will admit there are many disappointments that go into the publication of a book but when the final proofs arrive the satisfaction is more than a material achievement. I realize that this is not the ideal publication but it reflects the interests and pursuits of many. A yearbook is not of primary importance after Graduation or at year's end but five years later. It is a collection of memories, including the tears, excitement, and joy all of which are remembered by the glimpse of a familiar place and its respective faces which make it almost real.

This is in part my feeble attempt to give of myself to Belmont Abbey. I hope this tradition is carried further and I hope others will continue to express themselves even in the event it may be unpopular. It is the few who dare to be different and the few who are open minded enough to listen that makes a yearbook a reality.

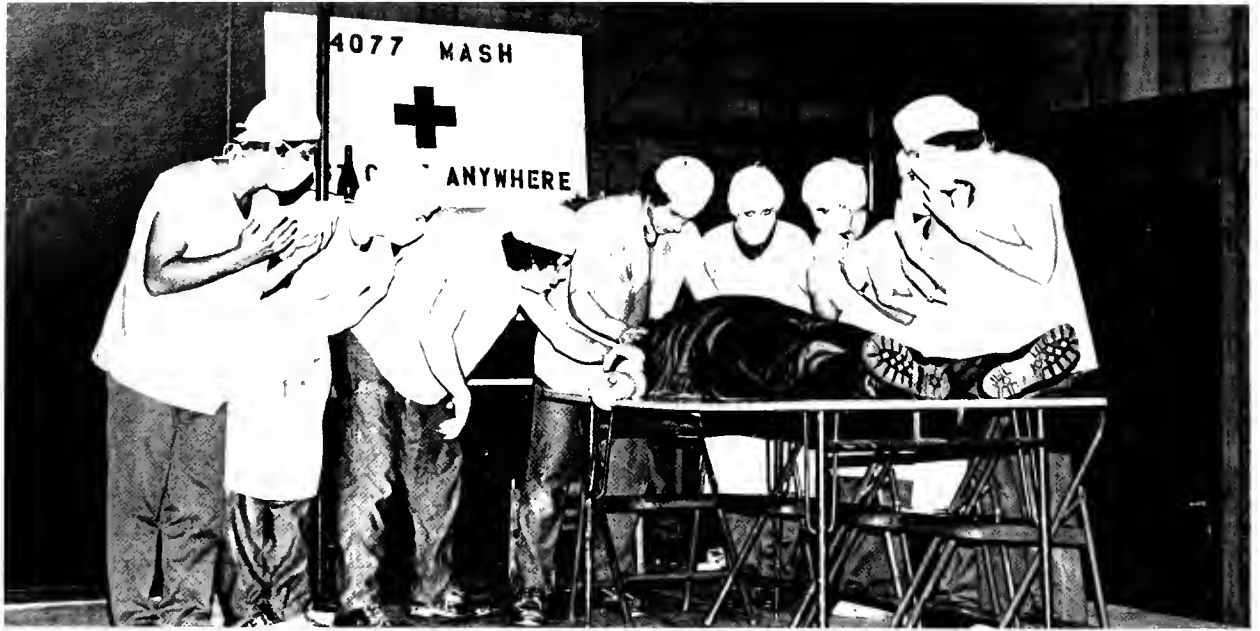

Abbey Players

Congratulations are in order for the Abbey Players who, under the direction of Simon Donoghue, took a dynamic plunge to the forefront with this past year's productions. The casts of "Godspell," "Hadrian VII," "Mash," and "Shadowbox" all deserve recognition. Each performance was a feat of organization and production both on and off the stage.

THE PHOENIX CLUB

The former TKE's are so called due to a temporary loss of their chapter, which they hope to regain in the near future. The loss was caused by a slow enrollment into the organization and a lag in funds in the past years.

However the tides have turned as the group proved this past year. The brothers and the little sisters (who are the former group of the Order of Diana). United to temporarily form the Phoenix Club. With an increase in membership, of four girls and twelve guys, the group put in an industrious year. Their goals are to regain their chapter and acquire a new house for their organization. Through everything from a paper drive to bagel sales, they watched their bank account grow.

The group's activities were not only limited to pursuing their own interests but; in following their annual tradition they spent All Saint's Day hosting a Halloween party for the retarded children at Holy Angels Nursery. Other community services include, staging and participating in a basketball game with the Mary Nelson Center children, working with the Charlotte Jaycees loading and unloading donations to Goodwill Industries, and participating in the special Olympics sponsored by the college.

The Organization's persistence and spirit will surely guide them to achieve their goals.

ALPHA PHI OMEGA

Alpha Phi Omega has existed on the B.A.C. campus since 1967. A.P.O. functions as a service fraternity with projects both on and off campus. Twice this year the A.P.O. Brothers and the Sisters of Rho Mu worked together in Red Cross Bloodmobile drives. A dunking booth was set up at fall weekend with the profits going to charity and the dunking going to B.A.C. faculty and administrators. The brothers also work in conjunction with a local Boy Scout troop.

As mentioned the sisters of Rho Mu is also service oriented with some projects being done jointly with the brothers and others independently. Like the brothers the sisterhood consists of girls from both B.A.C. and Sacred Heart College. Some sister organization's projects include the Aquathon for Cerebral Palsy, sponsoring projects for the elderly and disabled, and policing both campuses' litter.

This was a rebuilding year for our volleyball team. Unlike most college volleyball teams the Abbey played well with no scholarship players at all.

Attendance at the teams' try-outs early in the year was very impressive. Twenty-five girls were on the team when only twelve are really needed to play. This should show good spirit and good potential for the future.

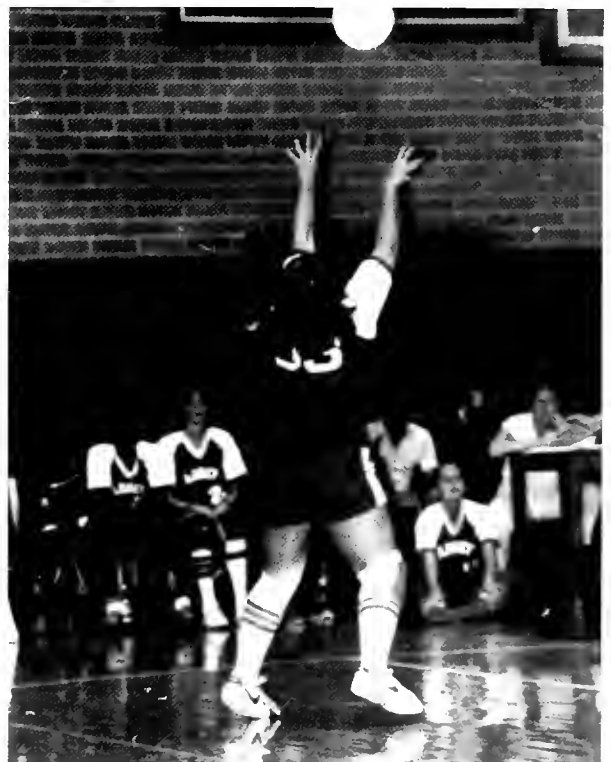

The team played under the superb leadership of Coach Sharon Ratchford and the team's only two seniors and captains, Brenda Lucas and Geralynn Slough.

Captains Slough and Lucas commented that, "the team was a well rounded team with no super-stars." With a number of freshmen, returning starters, and great team spirit, the team shows promise and potential for many excellent seasons ahead.

BELMONT ABBEY SOCCER

The 1980 Belmont Abbey Soccer team turned an expected rebuilding season into an unexpected successful one.

This year's team was, for the most part, a very young team. It consisted of eighteen freshmen, two sophomores and three juniors. This was Coach Jack Murphy's second year at the Abbey.

He stated that this year's team was probably the youngest for a school this size in the entire country.

The soccer team came a long way since last season, which was the poorest in Abbey Soccer history. The team placed second in their district behind High Point College. They made it to the play-offs and were defeated in a heartbreaker, 3-2, by Atlantic Christian College in the first round.

According to Coach Murphy, the Abbey's toughest games were against UNC-Chapel Hill,

UNC-Greensboro, and Coastal Carolina.

The Abbey Soccer team played under the leadership of team captain Jim Kirby. Leading Abbey scorers were Mike Flinn, Jim Kirby, and Bill King. All American Grant Cuthill was the Abbey's starting goal keeper and averaged 10 saves a game.

Coach Murphy also commented that "Team spirit was high this year, and that good, productive practices, were a major asset in the team's success."

GREAT WORK GUYS!!

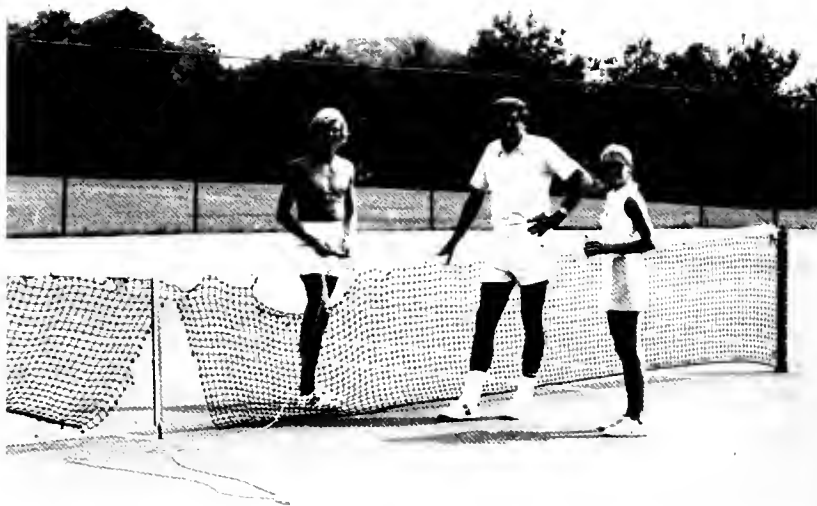

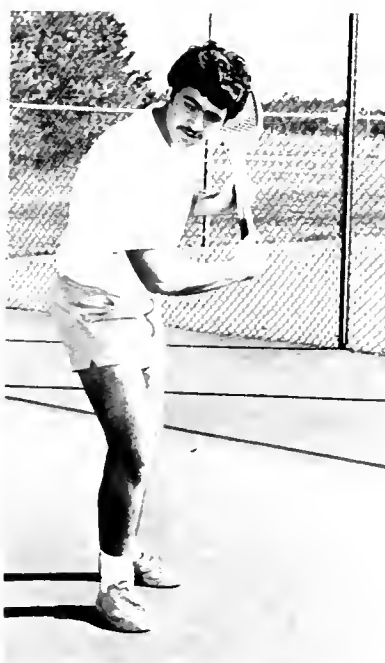

Deuce!!

The Belmont Abbey College tennis team ended their 1981 season with a fifth-place finish among the 32 teams competing in the NAIA District 26 Tennis Tournament.

Ending the regular season schedule with an impressive record of 15-7, Coach Mike Reidy recorded another winning campaign. In Reidy's 12 years with Belmont Abbey College, the tennis program has taken root and grown into one of the perennial powers of NAIA District 26 competition.

Going into the district tournament, the Crusaders' second seed in individual competition, Roger Martin, claimed a team leading singles record of 17-5. Next in line was fifth-seeded freshman Andy McCaw with a 15-6 record. Top-seeded junior Kevin Burke followed with an individual record of 14-8, as sixth-seed sophomore Mike Sijon trailed closely with a singles mark of 13-9. Fourth-seeded senior Andy Doris recorded an individual mark of 12-9, while third-seeded junior Scott Davis held an 11-11 record.

In NAIA District 26 tournament competition, all of the Crusaders advanced past the opening rounds to earn the team their fifth place finish. First and second seeds Kevin Burke and Roger Martin reached the semi-finals in doubles competition, an area of play in which the Abbey has been successful all season. The Crusaders won 34 of 57 doubles matches in regular season play.

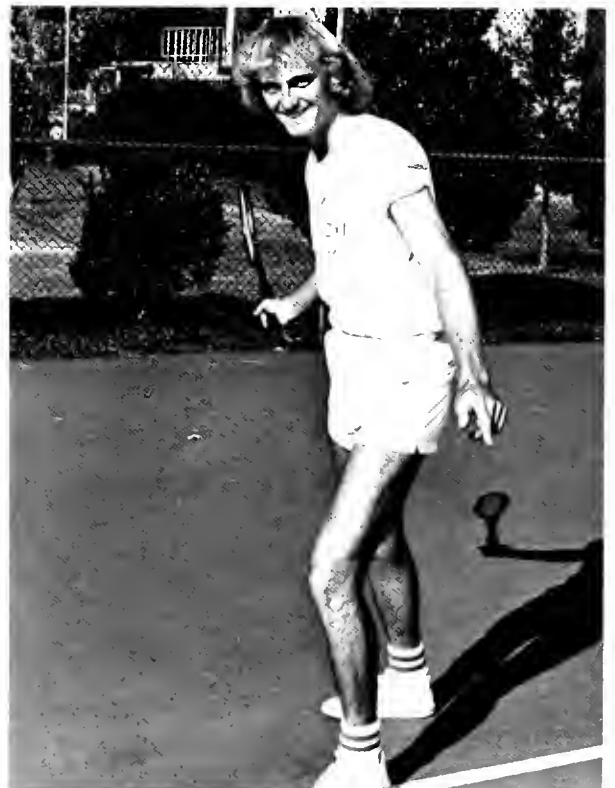

As a final congratulatory note, both Burke and Martin were named to the NAIA District 26 All-Tennis Team.

CRUSADER BASKETBALL

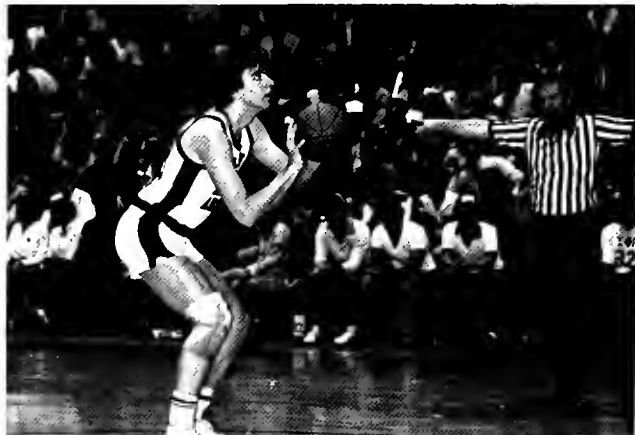

The Crusaders of Belmont Abbey College have completed another sensational basketball season, and, with some regret, have ended an era of Abbey basketball which can be coined "The Hussey Dynasty." For with former Coach Bobby Hussey's decision to accept the head coaching position at Davidson College, one cannot help but feel that the 1980-81 basketball season marks the end of an extraordinary period of success for Belmont Abbey College basketball.

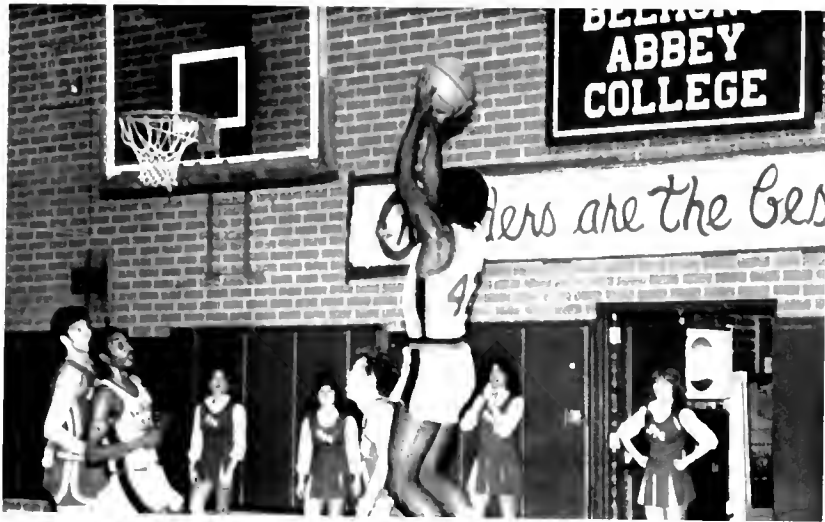

This season the Crusaders compiled a final record of 24-7, making 1980-81 the fourth consecutive season in which the team has won 20 or more games they posted a regular season record of 22-6 and earned the third-seed position among the six teams participating in the NAIA District 26 Play-offs in the Winston-Salem Coliseum.

However, the Abbey's season was no cakewalk, and the team's road to the district tournament was a rough one. At the outset of the 1980-81 season, the Crusaders emerged quite disheartened from the WBTV Carolina Classic (a tournament which they won last year) after a one-point loss in the semi-final round of play to Winthrop College, the team which eventually won the tournament. At that point in the season the Crusaders held a record of 5-3. Nothing to write home about.

Likewise, at the mid-point of the season, the Crusaders held a record of 9-5 and were fresh off of a sound thrashing at the hands of the Falcons of Pfeiffer College. No surprise! After the unprecedented 29-5 season of 1979-80, this season was to be a rebuilding year and a 9-5 record was presentable — nothing to be ashamed of.

However, it was at this point of the 1980-81 season that the Crusaders ran off (in a rather modest fashion) 13 straight victories before losing their final game of the regular season to Lenoir-Rhyne College. In fact, the Crusaders won 16 of their last 18 games of the season to post that 22-6 record, which earned the squad that third seed in the NAIA District 26 Play-offs.

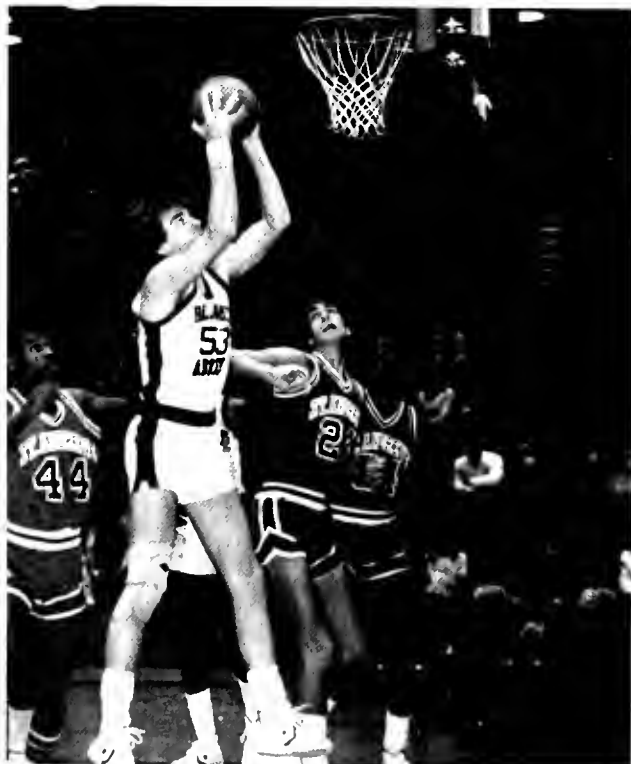

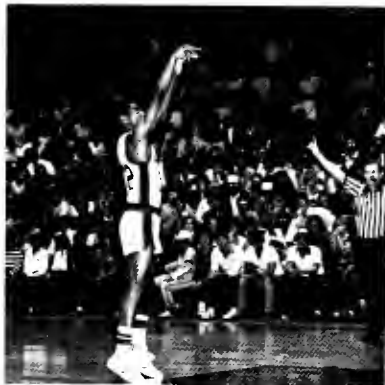

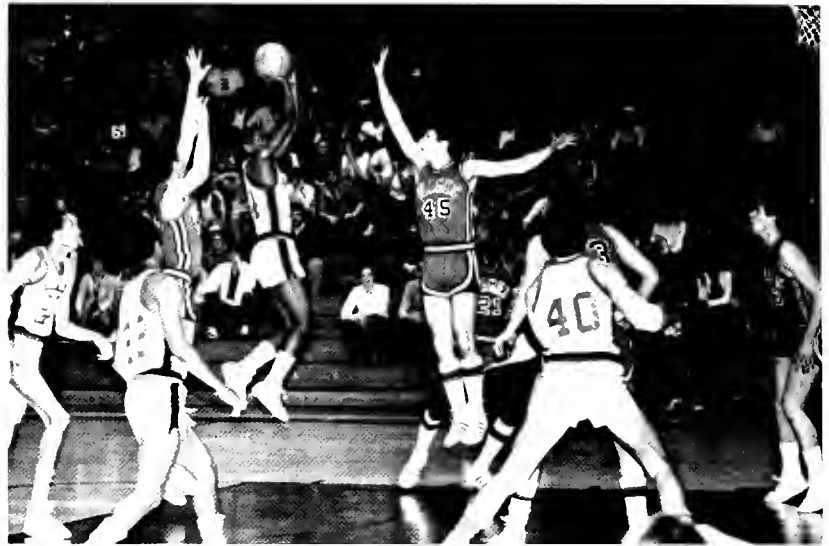

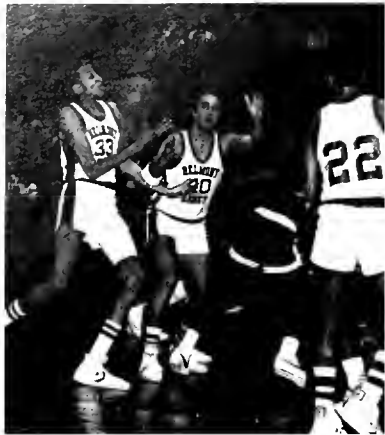

In the opening round of the NAIA District 26 Tournament, the Abbey undefeated Pembroke State University by a score of 65-56 to advance to the second round of play. The following night the Crusaders bumped tournament favorite J.C. Smith from competition by a score of 68-66. Thus the stage was set for the final confrontation: Belmont Abbey vs. Gardner-Webb in the finals of the NAIA District 26 Tournament. It seemed only fitting that these two perennial powers should endure slow starts at the outset of the season and make their way to the finals for a showdown.

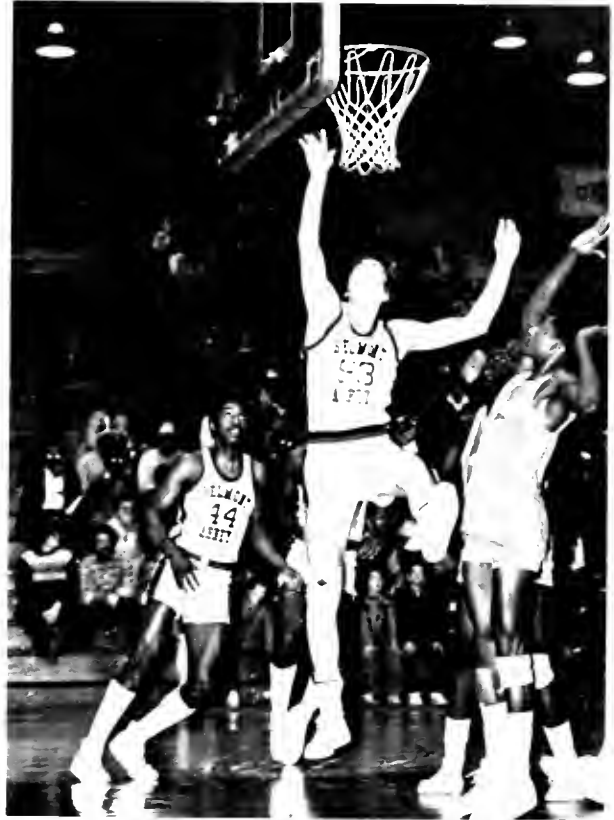

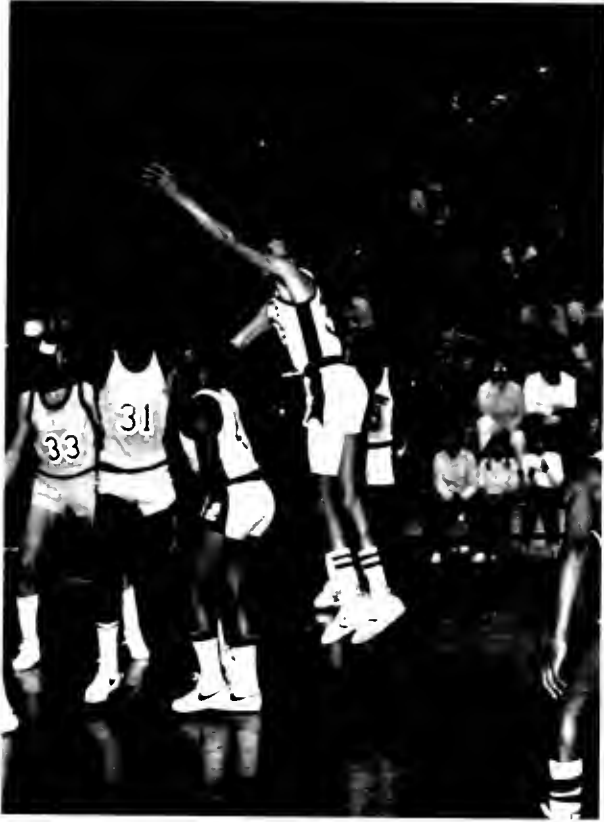

The Crusaders, playing with a visible tightness in their game, fell behind in the early going of the contest and trailed at the half by a score of 44-35. Likewise, the second half saw Gardner-Webb stretch their lead to 11 points with the score at 69-58 with 10 minutes remaining on the clock. All appeared to be lost for the Abbey.

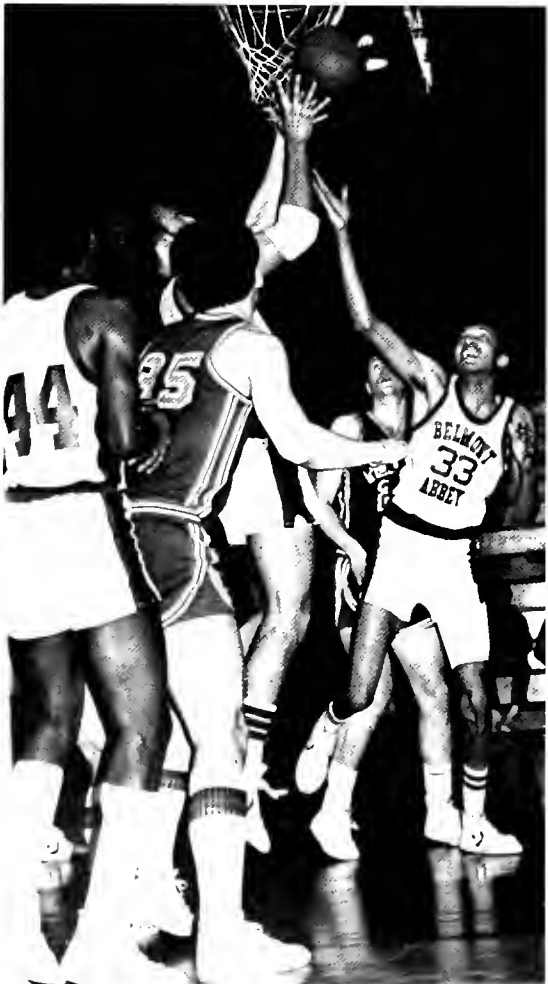

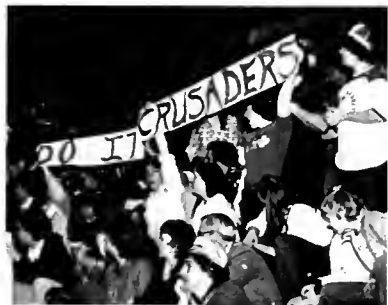

However, the Crusaders countered with several quick baskets which resulted from a full-court press. Almost magically the Crusaders were back in the contest. For with 0:16 remaining in the game, the Abbey had the ball and was down by only one point with the score at 82-81.

A missed Crusader shot went out of bounds off of a Gardner-Webb man. Again the Abbey had a chance. The ball was inbounded with 0:09 left on the clock to Crusader Greg Howard. Howard was unintentionally fouled by Bulldog Norris Bell with 0:04 remaining in the game. This foul put Howard at the free throw line with a one-and-one situation.

Following two Gardner-Webb time-outs, Howard, standing at the free throw line with the Abbey down by one, took the ball, performed his ritualistic three-dribble period of concentration, raised the ball to eye level and shot. As the Abbey's hopes gained altitude and peaked in harmony with the trajectory of the ball, likewise those hopes vanished as the ball hit the back of the rim and took a high bounce before coming to rest in the hands of Gardner-Webb's Frank Streater. The final score was 82-81. The Abbey's season was over.

Along with Hussey, seniors David Kershaw, Frank Pickett, and Stan Parker will be lost from next season's team.

Kershaw culminated his college career, as the Wellford, S.C., native scored 2049 career points. He was named to the NAIA District 26 All-Tournament Team, and was also voted as a third-team member of the 1980-81 NAIA Basketball All-American Team.

LADY CRUSADERS

The Lady Crusaders of Belmont Abbey College, after the squad's premiere in AIAW action, have completed the 1980-81 basketball season, and Coach Tony Baldwin's charming smile glows from the reflection of the past season.

Baldwin, a former assistant with the women's basketball program at the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill, came to the Abbey late in the recruiting season last year. Despite this fact, Baldwin managed an impressive recruiting sweep amid the scramble of late season panic recruiting to establish a women's program at the Abbey. For his efforts Baldwin received six solid players, all fresh out of high school. Nonetheless, these six freshmen jelled into a solid team as the season progressed and produced a winning season with a final record of 12-10.

With a regular season record of 12-9, the Lady Crusaders had achieved the goal of a winning season, and, consequently, had the chance to participate in the AIAW State Play-offs held in Hickory, N.C., on the campus of Lenoir-Rhyne College.

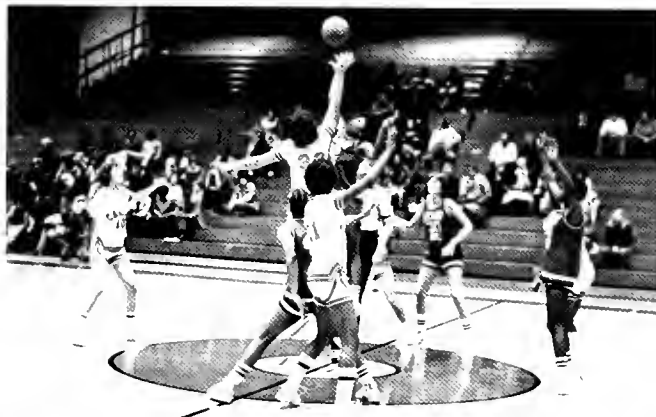

In first-round tourney action, the Lady Crusaders were pitted against the women's squad from Campbell University, a team which had defeated the Abbey 88-67 during the regular season. The Lady Crusaders played a superb first half and took a 33-30 lead to the locker room. However, cold shooting and foul trouble plagued the women in the second half of play, and Campbell went on to win the contest by the score of 82-70, thus ending the Lady Crusaders' first season.

CHEERLEADING

Belmont Abbey has much to be proud of in its sports program and an integral part of it is the lovely and vivacious Crusader cheerleaders. The squad has increased in numbers; half of which are "Freshwomen". This increased student involvement follows the trend of successes in the Abbey's sport program. The addition of women's basketball and the new vitality in the Abbey Soccer program offer further avenues which the cheerleaders may pursue.

An integral part of a community is recreation particularly on a small college campus. The Abbey's intramural program is one of many means of recreation. The program is extensive, with opportunities for participation in badminton, tennis, water-polo, flag football, softball, basketball, and cross country. The teams are open to all interested students and are comprised of teams from different dorms and fraternities as well as individuals on their own depending on the sport.

Get interested in this ongoing and growing program, look for notices posted around campus.

CRUSADER GOLF

Fr. Martin Hayes, O.S.B. and the Belmont Abbey College golf team are finding going tough in NAIA District 26 action.

The Crusaders currently hold a record of 0-3 with only two matches remaining on their schedule prior to the playing of the Abbey Classic. The Abbey Classic, a twelve-team event, will be played at Gallagher Trails, the Crusaders' home golf course which has been completely renovated for the 1981 season.

The Crusaders will end the 1981 golf season on the road as the Abbey will face Lenoir-Rhyne College, a team which registered one of their defeats early this season. The Crusaders' other losses this season have been at the hands of Wingate College and Catawba College.

Senior Clyde Arrowood and junior Dennis Stokes are leading this season's squad as both of these players are shooting in the high 70's to low 80's.

COACH HUSSEY

Bobby W. Hussey has resigned as men's head basketball coach and athletic director at Belmont Abbey College to assume head coaching duties at nearby Davidson College.

The announcement came on March 19, only weeks after Hussey had led his Crusader basketball team to the finals of the NAIA District 26 Basketball Tournament for the second consecutive year.

"My tenure at Belmont Abbey College has been a fruitful experience that I believe has made me a much better person," said Hussey. "But Davidson College has given me an opportunity to fulfill a goal which I set for myself many years ago — becoming a head basketball coach at the NCAA Division I level."

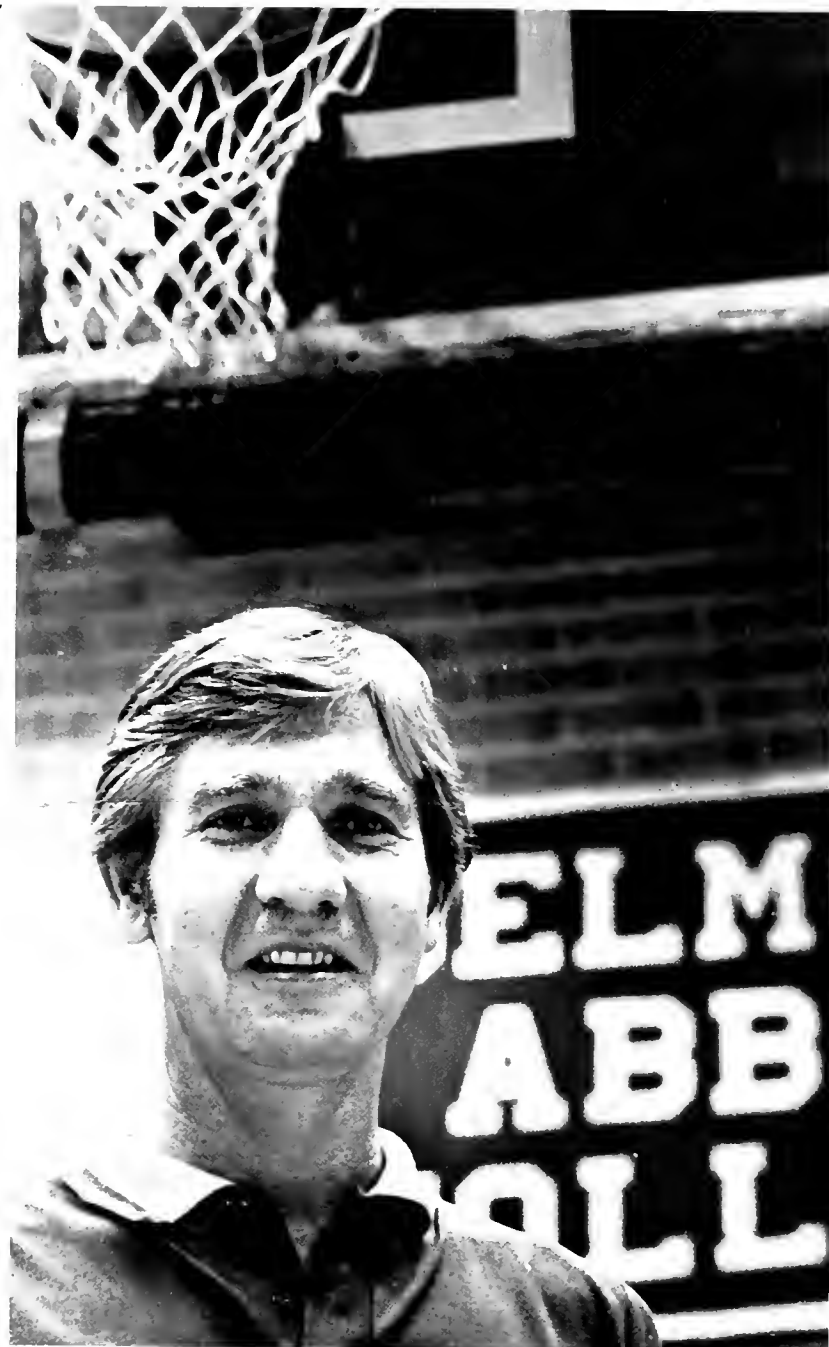

Hussey's ten-year record at the Abbey is 178-115, including 96-31 the past four years with records of 21-9, 22-10, 29-5 and 24-7 consecutively.

He was a coach at nearby Kings Mountain High School from 1962 to 1970, serving as head coach the final four years and guiding the Mountaineers to a 67-7 record. He was a graduate assistant at Appalachian State University in 1970-71 and coached the freshman team to a 16-6 record.

Charged with the task of finding a replacement for Hussey was Harry Creemers, vice president for institutional advancement. Creemers, in conjunction with the advisory committee selected from among 90 applicants Edward G. Payne, former assistant basketball coach at East Carolina.

Hussey, 41, is of course quite pleased with the five-year contract he has just signed with Davidson College. "However," he said, "there is always a little hesitation when you leave behind a successful program you have built and established.

"Belmont Abbey College has been the motivating element of my coaching career for the past ten years. I've given it my all, and it's given me much enjoyment, satisfaction and, now, this new opportunity. I see this opportunity at Davidson as a new challenge for me, and I owe it to myself to go on to the NCAA Division I level of play and test the metal I'm made of as a coach on that level of competition.

"My biggest regret is leaving Belmont Abbey," Hussey continued. "I'd like to give a big tribute to the College because the people here are the ones who gave me the opportunity to be a college coach. The priests here are some of the greatest people in the world."

GRADUATION 1981

One hundred forty-three students received the bachelor's degree from Belmont Abbey College in the school's 103rd commencement on May 10.

Speaker at the 3 p.m. ceremony was Dr. James Ralph Scales, president of Wake Forest University. Scales charged the 1981 graduates to "respond cheerfully to the desperate challenges of survival, and, racing against the clock of history, . . . make all the nightmares of destruction untrue."

After reviewing the warnings of a number of gloomy prophets, Scales said, "The events foretold by these prophecies will not happen if educated men and women find their voices, as well as their typewriters and computers and machine tools, and go to work to prevent the materialization of all the fears aroused by the world's condition. Prophcey represents rational human instinct informed by facts, and it has not always been so gloomy.

Following his commencement address, Seales was awarded the honorary Doctor of Letters degree by Belmont Abbey College. Also receiving this honorary degree was the baccalaureate homilist, the Reverend Monsignor Francis P. Friedl, pastor of St. Joseph's Catholic Church, Elkader, Iowa, and former president of Loras College, Dubuque.

The honorary Doctor of Laws degree was awarded to Virgil T. Hartquist, chairman of the board and chief executive officer of Jefferies Associates, Inc., headquartered in Philadelphia, Pa., and Dr. J. Randolph Taylor, pastor of Myers Park Presbyterian Church, Charlotte.

At the 11:30 a.m. Baccalaureate Mass in the Abbey Church,

Monsignor Friedl urged the graduates "to go forward . . . from this moment with charity toward all and malice toward none, to complete the tasks the Good Shepherd has left unfinished, guided surely by the sound of His voice."

Exactly 50 per cent of the Belmont Abbey College Class of 1981 was from North Carolina with 15 additional states being represented by the out-of-state graduates. Female students accounted for 43 per cent of the class.

An Auburndale, Mass., native, Richard J. Dougherty, was named Abbey Student of the Year during the graduation exercises. The award is presented annually by Belmont Abbey College's Alpha Rho Chapter of Phi Kappa Theta fraternity to a junior or senior who characterizes the ideal of the Abbey gentlemen or gentlewomen, and who has contributed significantly to campus academic and extra-curricular life.

The Wall Street Journal Award, presented annually to an outstanding student in the Department of Business Administration and Economics, went to Gary D. Ballard of Lincolnton, N.C. That department also presented an award to Ron E. Durance of Gastonia, N.C., as the graduating senior who scored highest on the senior comprehensive examination.

Teresa Grose, also of Gastonia, was named the outstanding biology major, and Alan R. Jones of Bowie, Md., was commissioned as an officer in the U.S. Marine Corps.

Twenty seniors were distinguished as honor graduates with four degrees awarded summa cum laude (3.75), two magna cum laude (3.50) and 14 cum laude (3.25).

THE GOLD STANDARD IN FILTRATION

505 N. Main St.

OUR TOUGHEST PART-TIME JOBS COME WITH A $1500 BONUS.

All of our part-time jobs are challenging. But some offer you a lot of "extra" challenge. So it's only fair they also offer you "extra" incentive: with your high school diploma, you could qualify for either a $1500 enlistment bonus or up to $4000 in educational assistance, after completion of Army training.

You'll earn that bonus as a medic or MP. As a combat engineer, tanker or infantry soldier. Or as a key member of an artillery or air defense crew.

Besides the bonus, you'll earn over $67 one week-end a month. And over $900 per summer your first two summers (your initial training).

If you're 17 or older and a junior or senior in high school, the Army Reserve is a perfect part-time job for you. The hours don't conflict with school, the pay is good, and what other part-time job even offers a bonus? The Army Reserve has lots of rewards. And they aren't all money.

ARMY RESERVE. BE ALL YOU CAN BE.

Hardee's biscuit breakfast kept me in school

It's expensive being a professional student. 64 semesters of tuition ain't cheap. I was running so short I thought I'd have to graduate and get a job. Then I discovered Hardee's biscuit breakfast. Two homemade ham or sausage biscuits for just a dollar. It was delicious and it saved enough money to keep me in school. Maybe I'll get my post-doctorate in Breakfastology."

Our 50th year, and we have a yarn to spin.

For 50 years now, we've been appearing in more and more places.

While you may never see the Ti-Caro name in the products you buy, our yarns, industrial sewing threads and a myriad of knit fabrics show up practically everywhere. Most name brand apparel manufacturers use our products in some way.

You'll even find our products in baseballs, luggage, furniture and automobiles.

We're a company of nearly 6,000 people in 24 plants in the Carolinas and Puerto Rico and in sales offices and distribution centers nationwide and in Europe. Our stock is traded on the New York Stock Exchange, ticker symbol "TCX".

In our communities, Ti-Caro, as well as its employees, is active.

Ti-Caro, Inc. We'd like for you to know us better.

ONE LINERS

We're dealing. Fat Head. dyno. Good Call. Who was that running from the burning "House"? Is it 'real' or is it just Memorex? Another One Bites the Dust. two plus two equals three (New Math) Where did all the medias go - What medias? What's green and smells like Miss Piggy? Where did all the children go? How did the Hill burn - Spontaneous Combustion? It's finished despite you K.P. Are you a normal stereo type or just another schizophrenic. "Massacre of the Innocents" - Gossip. You might see it if you take your blinders off. Everyone is a Moral Majority. Twirl baby Twirl. Disciplinary Board - Kangaroo Court. I'm Gaggin. Good luck Jerry & Ginny. Your price tags showing. Don't feel pregnant. Who cleaned the Ad Building. Don't let the Bastards get you down. Love to all of you who stuck by me, despite me.

I would like to dedicate this book to the few very special people who I feel deserve recognition for their instrumental help and guidance: Rose Hormon, although you never received the recognition you deserved I would like to thank you first and foremost; Abbot Walter, who donated the much needed pictures to this and past yearbooks; Sally Bayton, who with her enthusiasm tried to keep the staff together; Greg Hollingshead and Roger Dills who contributed articles to "Cross Roads" which were used in this publication. I would not want the staff members who did their job and received bylines for their work to go without mention: Father Mo, Nick Omirly, Ruth Schrenker, Kathy Schultze, Bob Richter (our photographer), Tom DeRose (our acting business manager), and Bernie Lessard (our yearbook representative).

I have had the opportunity to grow very much at Belmont Abbey and I hope that others will attempt the challenge I undertook in editing the spire in the future.

Thank you,
Sincerely
Stanley Barone Jr.

Thomas "Greg" Wyatt

April 9, 1960 — November 23, 1980

Thomas Gregory Wyatt was better known as Greg by his friends. It is very hard to describe in words his personality. Greg was very special to those who loved him and he in return treated his friends very special.

Greg loved sports, especially rugby, and he was also involved with Pi Kappa Phi Fraternity. The Wyatts were kind enough to let the fraternity use their lakehouse on Lake Wiley, S.C. for consolidation weekend 1980. Greg showed his peers some of his skills in sailing and waterskiing and, subsequently a good time was had by all.

On November 23, 1980 Greg's short lived life came to an end in a tragedy which affected not only his family but also his fraternity brothers and sisters, fellow rugby players and his close friends. Greg's presence is still felt today by those who loved him and who he loved. His sense of humor, athletic ability, gentleness, and kindness will be savored in memories of him; most of all Greg will be missed for his personality.

"It's hard to say where our life will lead us

So, we should make the best of the moments we have

Our friend Greg is gone from us in body, but his spirit remains.

He is happy now and that is the strength we must survive on.

Greg will never be forgotten by his loved ones.

But, instead we will carry on as if he were still here with us.

We love you Greg as you have loved us.

We will keep you close in our hearts and never forget your smiling eyes."

A Child's Song

*I don't want to be that wild again
I don't want to be that helpless child, but I found that which makes me vulnerable offers the window to my soul.*

*I make my vulnerabilities my strengths
when my wrecklessness nature ceases
To love another just like me gives me the strength which I need.*

*He showed us how our weaknesses make us strong if only we know him.
We have all heard it before,
it never ceases to be told once more.*

*To love others just like me gives me the strength which I need.
I don't have to be that wild again.
I don't have to be that helpless child anymore.*

S.B.J.
